Accommodations in New York

Battelle ARO will make reservations for you at the quarantine hotel; travelers must stay at the designated quarantine hotel. For NSF and NASA funded researchers, hotel room cost will be direct-billed to Battelle ARO (you are responsible for incidental charges). Non-NSF / non-NASA funded researchers must pay for hotel room cost at time of check-out using contactless methods. Rooms include kitchenettes. The only permitted activity out of the room during quarantine is solo exercise and your COVID-19 test. You are not permitted to use communal hotel facilities or housekeeping; contact the front desk if you need linens or toiletries delivered outside your door. The hotel offers a mobile app with contactless check-in and other information.

Food

Participants are not allowed to shop at any store during quarantine, which begins the day of your arrival at the hotel. Use delivery services throughout your stay: both grocery and restaurant delivery to the hotel are available. Here is a (not comprehensive) list of food resources available.

- Amazon \(Wholefoods\), use your personal account.
- Instacart allows users to order directly from various grocery stores. Delivery fees apply. Food is generally delivered the same day within a few hours of ordering. <https://www.instacart.com/>.
- GrubHub offers restaurant delivery from various area restaurants. They offer a no-contact delivery option. <https://www.grubhub.com/>.

Plan to bring any necessary specialty food from home. Travelling with food items to last until the day after your arrival is recommended to allow for any delays with grocery delivery.
