	Travel to Toolik Field Station

- All travelers will receive a shipment of infection prevention supplies for the trip.
 - All interstate travelers must complete training on infection prevention travel procedures.
<https://projects.battelle.org/radsafety/safetravels/story.html>
 - At least 14 days prior to departure, all travelers should check the COVID-19 websites for each destination along their routes of travel (Attached) and begin preparing any required documents.
- All Toolik-bound travelers must complete the following quarantine procedures, regardless of vaccination status and the State of Alaska exemptions. The Arctic program will continue to monitor pandemic and vaccine developments and will update this protocol when new evidence becomes available.
- 14 days prior to departure, travelers must begin Strict Social Distancing and determine the availability and lab turn-around time for RT-PCR (aka NAAT or molecular) tests in their area (100-mile radius).
 - Travelers should consult these links to research their state and local testing locations.
 - If local RT-PCR testing will not be available on the required test day (e.g., Sunday) or the results from the local lab will not be available prior to departure, travelers must contact Kim Derry at kim@polarfield.com or 303-349-6382 no later than a week prior to their scheduled departure.
 - Prior to travel, interstate travelers must file a travel declaration form and negative COVID-19 test result via the Alaska travel portal <https://www.alaska.covidsecureapp.com/>. Travelers may also elect to provide vaccination results on this portal.
 - 72 hours (3 days) prior to departure, all travelers must obtain an RT-PCR COVID-19 test.
 - 24 hours prior to travel, travelers must submit their travel fitness verification forms to Battelle ARO at this link: Pre-Travel Verification.
 - Prior to departure from home, travelers bound for Toolik Field Station (TFS) must submit evidence of medical travel insurance or a medical evacuation subscription.
 - Travelers must quarantine in Fairbanks for 10 days and undergo COVID tests around Day 5 and Day 7.
 - For Alaska residents quarantining at home, either everyone in the home must quarantine with the traveler, or the traveler must remain segregated from the other occupants.
 - After travelers receive two, negative test results and complete all 10 days of quarantine without developing symptoms, TFS staff will coordinate shuttles to the Field Station. Reservations are made via the website. <https://www.uaf.edu/toolik/handbook/shipping-transportation.php>

Definitions

Quarantine: keeps someone who might have been exposed to the virus away from others.

Isolation: keeps someone who is infected with the virus away from others.

Strict Social Distancing: is a term ARO adopted from the State of Alaska that summarizes CDC's pre-travel guidance and other best practices. The goal of Strict Social Distancing is to avoid close contact, which means remaining six feet away from anyone not in the immediate household.

To achieve this goal travelers must avoid venues like:

- Large social gatherings such as weddings, funerals, or parties
- Mass gatherings, like sporting events, concerts, or parades
- Businesses like restaurants, bars, fitness centers, or movie theaters
- Trains, buses, airports, ride-shares, and public transportation
- Cruise ships, ferries, or river boats
- Occupied office buildings, schools, and day-care centers
- Contact or quasi-contact sports, such as basketball, hockey, football, and soccer

And:

- Wear face coverings and remain six feet away from anyone not in their immediate households
- Use delivery or curbside pick-up for groceries, meals, or other errands
